Petition dt 5th March 37 - from Mr. H. C. Sreenivasa Iyengar, Retd Pandit, Archaeological Office, praying for an enhanced pension.

Submitted with previous reference. Mr. H. C. Sreenivasa Iyengar's case has been considered in all its aspects only in February & once again he submits his petition to the Dewan. Endorsement drawing his attention to the Endorsement already issued is put up for approval.

2) The case has been gone into fully — Vide notes in 5 ante file 309-34 & also the H: Sec's views dt 2.3.36.

3) There are no fresh grounds urged for re-opening the case.

4) I should like to see the original papers. What is the temporary Service he rendered?

Submitted with Mis. Collection 123-33-(1-2) The temporary Service of nearly 2 years with breaks from 15th Feb 1910 to 28th [illegible] is said to be not verifiable as it was purely [illegible] posts for short periods & intervals.

2. In some cases half the temporary service and in a few cases the entire period of Temporary service, was ordered by Government to be treated as qualifying, in cases where the retired men did not hold any permanent appointment. This concession was evidently shown to grant some pension for long temporary service in those cases.

3. But there does not seem to be any instance in which the entire period of temporary service was treated as qualifying in addition to the permanent service. In this case not only has half the temporary service been treated as qualifying but a further period of 11 months and 14 days has already been condoned in view of the temporary service rendered.

Whether in the circumstances his request for counting the whole of the temporary service for pension and enhancing his pension from Rs 17/- to Rs 19/- ~~may~~ can be granted is for orders.

30.8.37.

In the absence of any rules to regulate the amount of pension in such cases of the kind orders would have to be passed on the merits of each case. The case of the petitioner has been considered once or twice. The question of a further concession is for orders. (Vide paragraph 4 of the notes above.)

Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar's total service was 20 years 10 months and 11 days. Of this, the qualifying service was 13 years, 11 months and 11 days, the temporary service was 4 years, 2 months and 10 days and the balance was acting and non-qualifying.

In the their letter dated the 28th March 1934, the University recommended that the temporary service referred to above may be counted for pension and a pension of Rs 19/- per mensem may be granted, granted, as otherwise he would be hit hard and as he retired in January 1934, he lost also the benefit of the temporary enhancement of the age of superannuation allowed in the Government Order of March 1934.

Government were, however, pleased to direct that half of the temporary service rendered by the Pandit, be counted for pension so that the qualifying service might come to 16 years and 16 days or 16 years and a pension of Rs. 16/- per mensem, be granted. ( Vide Government Order No. E. 903-4/Uni. 123-33-2 dated the 1st October 1934 ).

On a further representation made by the Pandit in 1935, a deficiency of 11 months and 14 days was condoned and the pension of Rs. 16/- previously sanctioned was raised to Rs. 17/- per mensem ( Vide Government Order No. Fl. 8181-2/S & A 309-34-23 dated the 4th May 1935 ).

The Pandit is still pressing ( vide his representation dated the 5th March 1937 ) that he is entitled to more if the entire temporary service is counted for pension.

Recently one Mr. A. Shunmugam Mudaliar, Retired Manager, Public Works Department, was given on the recommendation of the Head of the Department, an arbitrary pension of Rs. 62-8-0 being half of his last pay of Rs. 125/-, even though under the rules he was entitled to a pension of Rs. 61-3-0 being half the average emoluments for the qualifying service. In this case he has been granted an enhanced pension arbitrarily, whereas in the case of Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar an increase is asked for, for a period of service service actually put in by him, but which does not count for pension under the rules.

As reported by the Comptroller, there are some cases in which half of the temporary service, and in a few others - the entire period of temporary service, was ordered to be ~~tried~~ treated as qualifying for pension.

In the above circumstances and in view of the repeated representation of the Pandit for raising his pension from Rs. 17/- to Rs. 19/- per mensem and the recommendation of the University, if Government are willing to show him any concession, it may be allowed subject to its taking effect from the date of sanction but not retrospectively.

Petn: Regr. No 1103

The Dewan of Mysore, Bangalore.

Petitioner:

M.C. Sreenivasa Iyengar,
Retired Pandit,
Archaeological Office,
138, Ramavilas Agrahar,
Mysore.

The Petitioner most respectfully begs leave to submit to your gracious consideration the following representation regarding his pension.

1. The Petitioner retired from Government service on 22-1-1934 after an unbroken and satisfactory service of 19 -- years in the Archaeological Department. At the time of his retirement the petitioner was drawing a salary of Rs. 60/- per mensem. On retirement the petitioner was granted a pension of Rs. 16/- only, though he was entitled to a pension of Rs. 19/- under the Service Regulations.

2. The petitioner, therefore, made a representation to the Financial Secretary to the Government of Mysore, praying for the grant of the full pension of Rs. 19/-. The Financial -- Secretary was pleased to make an order, enhancing the pension to Rs. 17/- only.

3. The petitioner has put in an unbroken and satisfactory service of 19 years. The petitioner humbly submits that a reduction of Rs. 2/- in his pension would cause him a great hardship in his old age. The petitioner understands that he has not been granted the full pension of Rs. 19/- owing to the -- technical objection that the first four years of his service were of a temporary nature.

In addition to this, the petitioner has also put in a broken service of nearly 2 years from 1910-1912 in the same Office.

4. The petitioner, therefore, most humbly prays that the Government may be graciously pleased to revise the order and grant him the full pension of Rs. 19/- with retrospective effect ( i.e. from the date of retirement), waiving the said technical objection, as the same was an unbroken one from the beginning.
